Bibliographies and Documents Series

Filipinos Overseas: A Bibliography

Shiro Saito

This new publication documents the current research status of the study of overseas Filipinos. The 1232 entries of this bibliography are arranged topically and geographically. The volume explores the bibliographic considerations and the research status concerning the overseas Filipinos within twelve material subdivisions including, the demographic overview of outmigration, U.S. immigration policy, views from the barrios and the brain drain. The Mainland U.S., Hawaii, Guam, Canada, Asia, Australia, the Pacific Area, Europe, Egypt, Africa, South America and the Arab Republic are examined as individual destinations of migration from the Philippines. The work contains a detailed index, appendices on areas of specific interest and an introduction by the author which details bibliographic materials to the U.S. and state official publications.

Shiro Saito currently serves as the Associate University Librarian for Public Services at the University of Hawaii Library. He is author of five other books including: The Philippines: A Review of Bibliographies, Philippine Newspapers in Selected American Libraries: A Union List, Philippine Ethnography: A Critically Annotated and Selected Bibliography, Philippine Research Materials and Library Resources: An Overview, and A Survey of Philippine Research Materials at the University of Hawaii Library. Saito is a member of both the American Library Association and the Hawaii Library Association. He has received the Fulbright Research Grant to the Philippines and lectures at the Graduate School of Library Studies at the University of Hawaii.

A Bibliographic Guide to Materials on Greeks in the United States, 1890-1968

Michael N. Cutsumbis

This guide — the first of its kind — is divided into a dozen sections of books and articles on the Greeks in the United States: Greek Americans in fiction; publications of the church and parish groups; fraternal works; parish and archdiocesan materials; manuscript collections; Greek American serials currently published and those suspended; and research in progress.

1970. LC 74-130283. Pp. 100. 6 X 9. ISBN 0-913256-01-1. $4.50.

The Portuguese in the United States: A Bibliography

Leo Pap

Eight hundred entries on early Portuguese contacts with North America; on Portuguese immigrants in the United States, especially in the areas of their settlement; on fictional literature depicting Portuguese immigrants in the United States; on Portuguese in Portugal; and on Portuguese immigrants in modern Brazil, Burmuda, Canada and Venezuela.

1976. LC 76-9270. Pp. 100. 6 X 9. ISBN 0-913256-21-8. $7.50.

Italian-Americans and Religion: An Annotated Bibliography

Silvano M. Tomasi and Edward Stibili

As a first step in presenting an organized and easily accessible index on sources and printed material in a major area in the life of Italian Americans (religion) and on a major ethnic group in the life of American Catholicism, this annotated bibliography initiates a systematic gathering of references, archives, published materials on both the missionary action started from Italy toward the North American continent and the Catholic and Protestant experiences of the immigrants from Italy beginning with the period of mass immigration and moving into the present.

1978. LC 76-44921. Pp. 100. ISBN 0-913256-25-0. $7.50.
